

EXPLOSION IN LABORATORY.

Furnace Blows Up as Chemists Test Materials on East Side.
An explosion in the electrical testing laboratory, on the ground floor of the four-story brick building, at East End Avenue and East Eightieth Street, early this morning shattered windows in the neighborhood and brought residents to the windows of their homes in alarm.

Fire followed the explosion, causing small damage. The blaze was extinguished before fire apparatus arrived. The explosion was caused by a defective electrical furnace. It is said the half dozen chemists in the laboratory were making tests for a product to be used in the European war.

BACKING DOWN TO MEET THE ISSUE

Excesses that Mean Punishment Swift and Certain.

Laws can be broken with impunity and offenders escape punishment for awhile, but the day comes sooner or later when the consequences must be faced.

This refers particularly to Nature's Laws. They must be obeyed. Bodily discomfort, loss of sleep, the wakefulness, and mental capacity follow the wakefulness, and unless corrected in time the condition is liable to become chronic.

A suggestion of inestimable value is the taking of Johann Hoff's Malt Extract with meals. This justly celebrated tonic food possesses digestive properties that have been recognized and endorsed by high medical authorities, is a natural blood, bone and muscle maker, and a brain and nerve food unequalled.

Can be procured from any first class druggist and the genuine Johann Hoff's should be insisted upon.—Adv't.

FINDS DAUGHTER DEAD IN GAS-FILLED ROOM

Newark Police Believe Miss Hymers Committed Suicide, but Relatives Say She Had No Motive.

Police authorities of Newark, N. J., are investigating the circumstances surrounding the death to-day of pretty, seventeen-year-old Grace Hymers, daughter of Frederick Hymers, a retired merchant, of No. 365 Broad Street.

Mrs. Catherine Hymers, mother of the girl, went to her room this morning and received no answer to her call. She summoned servants and the door was broken open. On the bed Miss Hymers was found. The gas was turned on and the girl had been dead several hours. She was fully clothed, wearing a new Easter dress. The police believed she had committed suicide, but the family would not accept that theory. Mrs. Hymers told the police her daughter went to church last night and returned home at 10 o'clock, going directly to her room.

"My daughter did not take her life," said Mrs. Hymers to-day. "We perfected arrangements Saturday by which Grace was to leave Newark next week for a month's visit in New York State."

The police say the girl had no love affairs.

MRS. ROOSEVELT HOME.

Ex-President and Daughter at Pier to Meet Her.

Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt arrived at the Ward Line Pier this morning on the steamship Mexico from Havana, where a cablegram from her son, Kermit, told her that his wife was recovering from the illness which had sent Mrs. Roosevelt hurrying to meet them at Panama.

Kermit's connection with the National City Bank had taken him to a branch of that institution at Buenos Aires, and having crossed over to Santiago, Chile, he was on his way to the Canal with his wife when she was taken ill. His mother left nine days ago on the Pastores.

Col. Roosevelt, his daughter, Mrs. Richard Lerby, and Mrs. Theodore Roosevelt Jr. were at the pier to meet Mrs. Roosevelt. They went aboard as soon as the gangplank was down. Col. Roosevelt thanked Capt. O'Keefe for looking after Mrs. Roosevelt, and then the party departed in a limousine for Oyster Bay.

SUBWAY FIRE NEAR GASOLINE

Firemen a Busy Half Hour.

Smoke from the wooden roofing over the new subway at Fifth Street and Seventh Avenue shortly before 2 A. M. to-day resulted in an alarm which brought fire apparatus under Battalion Chief McKiernan. The firemen ripped up the plank and after a half hour's search found the trouble due to defective insulation in electric light wires. Two gasoline tanks, each containing 2,500 gallons, a few feet away in the basement of the Drexel Machine Company, No. 740 Seventh Avenue, made the firemen extremely careful.
